Re: Long Island Printing & Copying Corp. adv. Singulus Technologies
Case No. 1-09-48184 (ess) & Adv. Pro. No. 09-1425 (ess)
Request for Telephonic Conference.

Dear Judge Stong:

As Your Honor may recall, we represent Singulus Technologies AG and Singulus Technologies Inc. (collectively, "Singulus") with respect to the above-referenced proceedings. On March 4, 2010 this Court entered that certain Stipulation and Order [Adv. Pro Docket No. 14] (the "Stipulation") resolving several matters between Singulus and Long Island Printing & Copying Corp. (the "Debtor"), including, but not limited to the adversary proceeding referenced above. As part of the settlement, the Debtor was obligated to pay to Singulus the sum of $11,500 on the Effective Date (as defined therein). The Effective Date occurred approximately two (2) weeks ago however, the Debtor has failed to remit the $11,500 payment to Singulus.

This payment of $11,500 is not a new payment. It is the same payment the Court directed the Debtor to make on January 21, 2010 when this Court entered that certain Consent Order Authorizing the Debtor to Use Cash Collateral Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §363(c)(2)(A) [Docket No. 59], wherein the Debtor was obligated to remit the same $11,500 payment by December 23, 2009. The fact that the Debtor never paid this amount resulted in its inclusion in the Stipulation.

Before we proceed to seek the appropriate relief, and in the interest of avoiding any further litigation, it would seem that a telephonic conference to discuss these developments is appropriate. We are available at any time today or tomorrow for a conference. Thank you for your time.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Marc L. Hamroff
